S.N.	Questions
Q.1	[Section A Reading] Read the passage carefully and choose the correct answer for each question. The Lost Puppy One evening, Meena was walking home from school when she heard a soft, helpless cry. She stopped and listened carefully. The sound was coming from behind a bush near the road. When she looked closely, she saw a small brown puppy shivering with fear. It looked weak, hungry, and completely lost. Meena felt sorry for the little puppy. She gently picked it up and wrapped it in her scarf to keep it warm. The puppy wagged its tail slowly as if it trusted her. Meena took it home and asked her mother for help. Her mother smiled and agreed to take care of the puppy for a few days. They gave the puppy some milk and food. Meena made a cozy bed for it using an old basket and a soft cloth. She also cleaned the puppy and played with it. Slowly, the puppy became active and cheerful. The next day, Meena decided to find the owner. She made colorful posters with a picture of the puppy and wrote, "Lost Puppy Found." She pasted the posters on walls and near the market. She also asked her friends and neighbors if they knew anything about the puppy.

After two days, a worried man came to Meena's house. He said he had been searching for his puppy everywhere. When he saw the puppy, his face lit up with joy. The puppy jumped into his arms happily.

The man thanked Meena and her mother for their kindness. Meena felt proud and happy that she had helped someone in need. She realized that even small acts of kindness can bring great happiness to others.
